13th Annual Titusville Policeman's Ball Planned

October 7, 2009 – The Titusville PAL is planning the 13th Annual Policeman's Ball for Saturday, November 7, 2009 at the Titusville Elk's Lodge.

The Ball is PAL's largest annual fundraiser and benefits children served by the programs, scholarships and services of the Titusville Police Athletic League. Money raised from this event allows PAL to fund many athletic and academic programs throughout the year. The Goal of the organization is to offer a positive alternative to negative influences in the community by merging sports, cultural, educational and recreational activities. PAL serves more than 1000 children ages 3-18 in the North Brevard area who enjoy a variety of sports programs as well as academic challenges that gently move them to become healthier, more productive members of the community. With your help we can continue to grow and reach more youth. Cheryl Lawson-Young, Executive Director of PAL states "Our dedication to the youth of PAL is unwavering and our hopes for them can only turn into a reality with the help of our community and our police officers, who create a positive link between our children and law enforcement".

This year's event "Titusville PAL's Got Game" has a sports theme and tables will be decorated in the colors of those who sponsor. It will be a casual event with dinner, entertainment by "Reflections" and a silent auction.

Sponsorships are available from $300 - $2500 with many benefits. Individual tickets are $35 per person or $60 per couple. Or you may have a "team" of 8 by reserving a table for $250. Wear your favorite team colors and come have a "ball".
